

Greetings to all! Welcome to Fall on the Horse Farm...

"The leaves fall, the wind blows, and the farm country slowly changes from the summer cottons into its winter wools." - Henry Beston in 'Northern Farm'

We've Moved! Mid-September brought a move to Woods 'n Trails Horse Farm, a lovely and private 40-acre facility just off Hwy 169 in Elk River. Chyef, Irish, and Rio appreciate their large pasture with lots of grass and TREES. Happy horses all around! I really appreciate the wonderful horse-care and well-kept amenities (and I think clients will too): brightly-lit, fully-insulated indoor arena with dust-free footing, huge outdoor arena, round-pen, and lots of parking spaces. For those coming out for early-morning workshops or coaching sessions, it's conveniently located near Caribou, Dunn Bros, AND Starbucks!

On Monday, November 16th...Jen Kochevar and I will again offer our all-day, small-group gathering entitled SUFFICIENCY AS A 'WAY OF BEING.' Author Lynn Twist in her book 'The Soul of Money' writes: "Once we let go of scarcity, we discover the surprising truth of sufficiency. Sufficiency ... is an experience, a context we generate, a declaration, a knowing that there is enough, and that we are enough." Each time I've been privileged to co-facilitate this workshop with Jen (and with the help of the horses as learning partners) I, along with the other participants, have experienced what is truly possible when we embody 'sufficiency'...Please join us! For more information about this workshop, go to www.Executive-Results.com and click on the Calendar tab (or contact me directly).

Finally, An Invitation.....to stop by and visit me (and Chyef, Irish, and Rio) at our new business 'home', Woods 'n Trails Horse Farm. It's only 40 easy freeway-miles from downtown Minneapolis. We'd love to show you around. The 'cost' for a visit??? Rio says "Bring carrots! Lots of 'em!" I say "It will be great to see you!"

If you're interested in a private or small-group coaching session (on-the-ground, no riding experience needed) with the horses, or would like to schedule a combination riding lesson/coaching session (*NEW OFFERING*: on-the-horse, any level of experience including beginners), I'm offering a special 30% discount on all sessions scheduled before year-end as a way to introduce you to Woods 'n Trails Horse Farm and equine-assisted learning with Chyef, Rio, Irish, and me. Whether you're interested in a quick visit or a formal learning session, just call or send me an e-mail and we'll set up a time to get together. Warmest Regards, Susan Motzko
